

Curt Trinko

A True Champion for Port Washington Residents

Chairman of Residents Forward for 20 years (formerly known as Residents for a More Beautiful Port Washington), Curt is the managing partner at The Law Offices of Curtis V. Trinko, specializing in complex litigation. Curt grew up in Wisconsin, graduated from the University of Wisconsin-Madison and got his law degree at NYU. He has been actively practicing law for 45 years and gained some notoriety from an anti-trust action that reached the U.S. Supreme Court. After clerking for a judge in Chicago for one year, he moved to Port Washington in 1978 and began focusing on investor-related litigation. Once in Port, he began his volunteerism with the Port Washington Parent Resource Center (1980), joined the New Salem Civic Association and volunteered on the Port Washington Landfill Citizen's Advisory Committee (1983). He currently volunteers at Our Lady of Fatima on the Pastoral Council, looking after the members of the parish. Through his active education and advocacy work at Residents Forward, Curt has recently been working on safeguarding our drinking water and advocating for effective land use plans.

The Community Chest of Port Washington is proud to honor Curt Trinko as our 2023 Citizen of the Year.
